STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Summer is the time to grow as an athlete. It's where the good dig deep and become great. Summer training camps offer student athletes the opportunity to stay active and learn the fundamentals of strength and conditioning to build on throughout the year.

At Howell Athletics, we are committed to empowering our younger athletes to reach their full potential and achieve their athletic goals. Join us this summer and embark on a journey of growth and success.

Camp Overview

Three different camp opportunities are offered throughout the summer to learn proper fundamentals in the weight room and speed techniques in the gym. Each camp will offer similar instruction and coaching but will provide individuals with different challenges as they develop within the program. Athletes will progress from bodyweight exercises to more advanced dumbbell and barbell exercises based on their understanding and abilities, with safety and proper form prioritized. All athletes will receive a t-shirt and post-camp analysis report.
